

Obituaries

Obituary: Jane M. Post, 88, of Meriden

Jane, a dedicated and devoted homemaker, cherished her family, loved the outdoors and was an avid gardener.

By John J. Ruggiero, Patch Staff
Aug 30, 2021 12:49 pm EDT

Like 1 Share

Reply

(Image via Shutterstock)

Born in Hartford May 2, 1933 to William and Gertrude (Bacon) Millman, she attended Wethersfield schools and graduated from Wethersfield High School.

Subscribe

The family will be forever grateful that Jane survived the Hartford Circus fire unscathed.

She worked at Southern New England Telephone until shortly after her marriage to Donald Post in 1961.

She then became a full-time homemaker and later worked a number of part-time jobs, most notable of which was her time at the Lorraine Exchange Answering Service. Jane loved being outside and working in the yard tending to the shrubbery.

She leaves behind two sons, Kenneth and Gregory Post, and a sister Phyllis Walter, all of

She was predeceased by her sister Faith Zenzic of Portland CT and her brothers William J. Millman Jr. of Myrtle Beach, SC and Richard B. Millman of West Hartford, CT.

There are no calling hours, and burial in the Middletown Veteran's Cemetery will be private.

In lieu of flowers, charitable donations can be made to the Meriden Lions Club, PO Box 2629, Meriden CT 06450 or to the charity of one's choice.

The Wallingford Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

Reply to this article >

More from Meriden, CT

News | 13m

New Haven Free Public Library: September Happenings / Novedades De Septiembre

News | 22h

Meriden Daily: Woman Missing + State Rep. Explores Run

News | 22h

Woman, 23, Missing From Meriden

See more on Patch >